Program Information

Target Audience

This meeting is intended for medical students, residents, faculty, physician educators, as well as, practicing physicians with an interest in medical education.

Learning Objectives

After attending this meeting, the participant will be able to:

- Outline a framework for educational excellence and scholarship.
- Discuss competence in teaching and educational scholarship as outlined by the framework.
- Plan and execute self and faculty development activities aimed at achieving excellence in clinical education.

CME Accreditation

The American Society of Anesthesiologists is approved by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to sponsor continuing medical education programs for physicians.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essentials and Standards of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the Joint Sponsorship of the American Society of Anesthesiologists and the Society for Education in Anesthesia.

The American Society of Anesthesiologists designates this educational activity for a maximum of 8.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Faculty Disclosures

The Society for Education in Anesthesia adheres to ACCME Essential Areas and Policies regarding industry support of continuing medical education. Disclosure of faculty and commercial relationships will be made known at the activity. Speakers are also expected to openly disclose any discussion of off-label, experimental or investigational uses of drugs or devices in their presentations.

Needs Assessment

Topics for this conference were selected by several methods. First, suggestions for future topics were derived from evaluations of the 2007 and other previous meetings. Second, these suggestions were considered and developed during discussions with educators attending the 2007 meeting and with other authorities in the field of anesthesia education.

Special Needs

The Society for Education in Anesthesia is committed to making its activities accessible to all individuals. If you are in need of special accommodations at the Rosen Centre Hotel or during the meeting, please do not hesitate to call or submit a description of your needs in writing to SEA, in order to receive these special services.

SEA Breakfast Panel at ASA Annual Meeting

Join us for the SEA Breakfast Panel at the ASA Annual Meeting
Re-Evaluating the Wheel's Utility in a Future of Hovercrafts
Tuesday, October 21, 2008
7:00-8:15 a.m.
Rosen Centre - Ballroom AB

Moderator: Kathy D. Schlecht, D.O.
President, Society for Education in Anesthesia
South Oakland Anesthesia Associates, P.C.
William Beaumont Hospital
Royal Oak, Michigan

Objectives: 1) Learn how to keep current with atrophying aging brains bombarded by technological advancements, medical advancements, information overload, life long learning, and MOCA; 2) Learn how the anesthesiologist's role is morphing into a new entity; shaped by political, social, and technological advances. Let us not react but be proactive in changing practice models to meet future expectations; 3) Learn if ACGME requirements can be reinvented to meet future demands from candidates and market forces; 4) Determine if newer teaching tools already exist? How residencies are utilizing technology, altering rotations, adding specialty degrees, and combining specialties to face the future.
